TECH SHOW KOMMERS.

Good Attendance Enjoys Speakers and Old Tech Show Stunts.

The Tech Show held its first Kommers last night at the Union.

The attendance was large and enthusiastic, and the program was good. Alexander Macomber, '07, general manager of this year's show presided. He spoke first, giving a general outline of the early beginnings of the Tech Show, its history in the past, and its purpose to encourage social life at the Institute. He said the Show would continue the same policy it had held to in the past, "The best place to the best man." He further stated that the decision as to the Show for this year had not yet been made but that several good ones were under consideration, and the choice would be announced in THE TECH within two weeks.

Dean Burton was the next speaker. He considered one of the best things the Show accomplishes is to furnish the original Tech songs that it does. It is these songs that have helped to build up a spirit of good comradeship which is being established at Tech. He also thought the Show especially valuable because it is a show of all Technology and not of any one club or organization.

Professor Wendell spoke next. He dwelt on the good training it gives the men in executive lines, in handling men, in working with other men, and in making men considerate of others.

A song from last year's Show, entitled "Woman Hater," was next given by Boles, '07, and was met with an enthusiastic reception.

Bursar Rand gave a very good talk on the necessity of locating the men at the Institute with real histrionic ability. He said, however, that work was the most important thing and it should not be sacrificed even for the Show.

In order to give the new men some idea of the Show several parts from previous performances were given. The first, from last year's Show, was by K. Vonnegut, '08, and R. H. Allen, '09, impersonating two grinds, Schmil and Wilson, respectively, in the duel scene, where they fight over Miss Van Etten.

Adams, '08, and Coffin, '07, sang the song "In Our Little Montmarte Cafe," and received several encores. Thode, '08, was the accompanist.

Ellis, '08, then sang the "Twilight Song," the hit of last year's play. This performance was very enthusiastically received.

Everybody then joined in singing "On Boylston Street," a song from the Show two years ago. Joseph Daniels, '05, then sang "A Bonnie Little Bonbon Girl" from "Simon Pure Brass," the Show three years ago. All the old Show men then sang "Not Wisely, but too Wellesley," and with an injunction to all to be on hand to cheer off the Cross Country team, the Show Kommers broke up.

CROSS COUNTRY.

Technology Chances in the Race Next Wednesday.

The team leaves the Back Bay Station at 6 o'clock this afternoon for the annual Intercollegiate Cross Country run which will take place over the six and a quarter mile course at Princeton on Wednesday. The best long distance men from Harvard, Yale, Pennsylvania, Princeton, Cornell, Columbia, and Tech will compete, and it is expected that the race will prove one of the most exciting ever held.

Cornell has a most promising team, having put up strong races in every instance thus far this season. Princeton is also expected to loom up strongly, and as matters look now, it will be a close race between Cornell, Princeton and Tech for the first three places. Cornell won last year over the Travers Island course by the small score of 29 points; the other colleges in the order of their finishing were: Harvard, Yale, Tech, Pennsylvania, Princeton, and Columbia.

The result of the run between Tech and Harvard on Field Day relieves all doubt as to Harvard's chances this season. On the other hand Tech has shown such a remarkable team, having broken all records over the difficult Roxbury course, that, unless the other contestants run an unusually fast race, she will be well to the front at the finish.

The only men to run this year who showed up well last year are McGoffin, Cornell, who finished second; Root of Pennsylvania, fourth, and King, Harvard, seventh. Other fast men to compete are Haskins of Pennsylvania, one mile intercollegiate champion; Parsons, Yale, former intercollegiate champion in the half mile distance; Spitzer, Yale; Captain Eisele of Princeton, and Hetherington of Columbia.

The following is the list of entries:

Technology—H. K. Callaway, '07, F. S. MacGregor, '07, G. B. Chapman, '07, M. Udale, '07, O. H. Starkwarther, '07, R. J. Batchelder, '08, H. E. Allen, '08, H. Howland, '08, R. Ellis, '09, E. L. Patch, '10.

Princeton—J. L. Eisele, W. C. McDermott, C. W. Vernon, Jr., W. L. McGee, E. H. Kelly, R. S. Glover, R. P. Parsons, A. McC. Conger, L. J. Reynolda, M. A. Campbell.

Columbia—B. Sanders, A. P. Montgomery, F. S. Hetherington, A. Zink, J. W. Brodix, W. A. Donovan, H. Harper, F. A. Hopkins, C. F. McKinley, R. S. Kennedy, S. Mills, R. Bennett, H. F. Kudlich, A. B. King, J. Wheeler.

Cornell—C. F. McGoffin, B. J. Lemon, A. L. Willgoose, W. S. Nobis, J. V. Colpitts, W. S. Keenholts, E. E. Seelye, R. Y. Thatcher, J. N. Keenan, E. P. Jones, D. M. Warren, H. L. Seaman, E. H. Tingley, A. H. Gilbert, A. C. Sullivan.

Harvard—W Minot, W. G. Howard, M. S. Crosby, H. F. Hadden, H. W. King, R. W. Whidden, R. W. Fisher, C. N. Hedin, R. P. Tenney, P. Woodman, J. M. Groves.

U. of Penn.—S. W. Root, L. P. Jones, G. Haskins, C. Laise, W. Stanton, R. H. Ivy, H. H. Morris, M. S. White, J. F. Morley, W. Dana, A. Beck, B. Mann, H. Haldeman.

Yale—R. A. Spitzer, B. W. Hellman, W. C. Gibson, M. B. Vilas, E. B. Par-

BASKETBALL PROSPECTS.

Large Number of New Candidates and Work Well in Progress.

Candidates for the Basketball team were called out last Monday when the first meeting of the candidates was held. A large number of men reported to Manager Whitmore then. The average attendance at practice during the past week has been about forty. There will be a cut in the squad next week so all who intend to try for the team this year are expected to come out at once. The squad will probably be picked the last of next week or the first of the week after. About fourteen men will be retained who will be divided into first and second teams.

J. C. Kinnear, '07, is captain for this year. Among the old men who are back this year are Wentworth, '09, and Belcher, '08, who plays guard, Pierce, '08, who played at centre in the Harvard and Dartmouth games last year, besides Captain Kinnear who plays forward. The men who have shown up the most promising in the practice so far, are: among the forwards, Bitler, '08, Cahill, '10, Pettingell, '09, Hargraves, '10, Fernstrom, '10, Tetlow, '07, Drake, '08; among those out for guard, Gregory, '08, Ford, '08, Nichols, '09, Foster, '09; those at centre, Gregory, '08, and Scharff, '09.

Taken all in all the prospects for a strong team this season are bright. With the old men and the the large amount of promising new material, it is hoped with the proper confidence and support of the undergraduates to develop a successful team. Schoenthal, a former Tech basketball captain, is coaching the team this year and expects to have the men in trim for the opening game of the season with Dartmouth. The men are very fast, and will be heavier than last year's team.

COMMUNICATION.

The Editors do not hold themselves responsible for opinions expressed by correspondents.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TECH:

My Dear Sir: On Tuesday evening next, Nov. 27, at 8 P.M. several selected members of the M.I.T. Mandolin Club have kindly consented to cooperate with R. H. Jackson, '06, and Mr. Otis Fales, '07, at a private musical entertainment to be held at the residence of Mrs. O. Atherton Shepard, 205 Gordon Road, Brookline. May I through your columns cordially invite all Technology students to the entertainment. Tickets at the door, 25 cents.

SAM. R. T. VERY, '07.

This Means You!

The Cross Country team defeated Harvard! It has a fine chance in the Intercollegiate race on Wednesday. The team deserves the support of every Technology man; therefore one and all should be at the Back Bay Station at quarter before six tonight to give the team a rousing send-off! No one has a right to be absent. Twelve hundred men can make a lot of noise and the team won't forget it when they start the race Wednesday.

Technology's Finances.

By a recent bequest the Institute has benefitted to the extent of $25,000. This calls to mind the Institute's need of financial aid, and the adverse conditions with which it always has had to contend. Its wonderful record of the past certainly entitles it above all other institutions to support of this sort. Although running behind in expenses every year and handicapped by inadequate facilities, especially compared with the new technical schools supported by endowments of millions, the Institute has gained the international reputation of being the first technical school of the country. Events move more rapidly than they did when the Institute was founded, and the amassing of great fortunes has made it possible for individuals to found schools, build spacious and beautiful buildings, and gather together powerful faculties by the enormous extent of their wealth alone. Machinery and apparatus must be constantly set aside and new substituted to keep pace with the swift changes; and additions must be made to the instructing force. In raising money from the graduates the Income Fund committee has done a great work. The amount of the fund has been growing steadily, and though no definite report has as yet been made, it is gratifying to note the generous response made by graduates both young and old. In spite of this progress, there is still much to be done before the committee can consider the work ended. Though this will be a great aid in the present difficulties, a much larger amount will ultimately have to be raised in order to secure the best results, that of keeping the old supremacy of the Institute.

MUSICAL CLUBS.

The combined musical clubs of the Institute, representing the Glee, Banjo, and Mandolin Clubs, will give the annual winter concert on the evening of Tuesday, Dec. 18th. This concert will be given as usual, in Potter Hall, at the New Century Building. The management has secured the services of an outside orchestra, and after the concert there will be dancing in Howe Hall in the same building.

The different clubs have been giving several individual concerts but these have been merely in preparation for the winter concert. They have been working all fall practising on the pieces and good performances are insured. Besides the regular club performances, additional attractions will be offered in the shape of extra soloists, who are expected to be very good.

may be obtained after Friday, Nov. 30. There will be required for the courses: Physical Laboratory Notes, Part II; Special Directions; Topics in Electrical Measurements; and a set of report blanks; also the usual laboratory note paper, plotting paper and covers, and a set of Holman's Logarithm Tables. The notes are not to be brought into the laboratory after the first exercise.

MECHANICAL ENG. SOCIETY.

What promises to be the most successful meeting of the Mechanical Engineering Society for the year will be held at the Union Tuesday evening, Nov. 27. At this meeting Mr. W. L. Underwood will give an illustrated talk of one of his most popular tales. It is exceedingly fortunate for the society that they have been able to obtain such an entertaining and prominent lecturer as Mr. Underwood. At the business meeting before the talk the advisability of having a society dinner next month will be discussed and plans formulated for carrying it out. Light refreshments are to be served as usual and the meeting will be called promptly at 8 o'clock.

CIVIC CLUB MEETING.

At a meeting of the Civic Club held Friday evening at the Tech Union an address was delivered by Mr. F. N. Balch.

Mr. Balch first traced the history of Boston's population. At the beginning the city was purely Yankee, then it became mixed with one after another different nationalities until now Boston can be called American but not Yankee. The order of the different nationalities is, Irish, Yankee, Hebrew, Italian. The inevitable ignorance of these foreigners and the criminal indifference of the Back Bay element has rendered Boston's politics a hard problem. There are 116,000 registered voters in Boston and only 74,000 ordinarily come to the polls, and the missing 42,000 represents the swellest element of the city.

To counteract these two dangers in city politics the Public Information League was started by some young men. This league looked up the different candidates nominated for office, and investigated and printed their records for the information of voters. Soon it amalgamated with, and existed as the Publication Committee of the Good Government Association.

After Mr. Balch's talk refreshments were served.
